

Conserving Herefordshire's Ice Age Ponds Project Conference

Wednesday 2nd March 2022, 9:00am - 4:30pm

09.00 Registration and coffee

Welcome and Introduction

	weicome and introduction
	Session 1
09.30	The National Picture	Ali Morse, Water Policy Manager
09.45	Project Background	David Hutton, Herefordshire Wildlife Trus
10.00	Herefordshire's Ice Age Landscapes	Beth Andrews H&W Earth Heritage Trust
10.20 Partnership	Ice Age Ponds in Norfolk	Tim Holt-Wilson, Norfolk Geodiversity
10.40	Discussion
10.50	Coffee Break
	Session 2
11.10	Sampling water quality: Ice age ponds as nutrient traps	lan Fairchild, Sarah King
11.40	Vegetation change over the last ~10,000 years Recorded from the sediments at Medlands Pond, Herefordshire	Warren Eastwood, Birmingham University
12.10	Discussion
12.20	Lunch
	Session 3
13.00	Near surface investigations of the Ice Age Ponds	Olivia Verplanke, University of Keele
13.30	Ponds and carbon capture	Mike Jeffries, Northumbria University
14.00	Ice Age Ponds in Herefordshire – Habitats and Plants	Will Watson, Project Ecologist
14:15	Ice Age Ponds Invertebrates	Giles King-Salter, Project Ecologist
14.30	Ice Age Ponds, the Farmers Perspective	Local Landowners
14.40	Discussion
14.50	Coffee Break
	Session 4
15:15	Funding for future	ТВС
15.45	Involving People	Sarah King, Herefordshire Wildlife Trus
15.55	Project Legacy	David Hutton, Will Watson
16.10	Discussion
16.20	Round-up	Andrew Nixon, Herefordshire Wildlife Trust
16.30	End of conference	